SCENIC TOWER & SCOTLAND'S RAINFOREST NATURE TRAIL

Loch Katrine's Scenic Tower and viewpoints offer breathtaking panoramic views across the loch and surrounding mountains. This dramatic landscape inspired Sir Walter Scott to write The Lady of the Lake in 1809, which is credited with Loch Katrine being the Birthplace of Scottish Tourism.

The path leading to the tower forms part of our new Scotland's Rainforest Nature Trail. This rare Atlantic rainforest is internationally significant, supporting rich communities of mosses, lichens, fungi and native woodland species that thrive in the clean air and high rainfall of the Trossachs.

Explore the trail and discover one of Scotland's most important and fragile natural habitats.
